

DISTRICT DRAFT BOARDS TO CALL MEN TO CAUCUS

NEW YORK, April 14—Use of former district draft boards in staging caucuses at which delegates to the organization convention of the American Legion, to be held May 8 in St. Louis, will be selected tonight by Lieut. Colonel Theodore Roosevelt and Bennett Clark of the temporary executive committee of the World War Veterans' association.

The suggestion was said to be highly practicable as the draft board members are in touch with the soldiers.

The executive committee, it was announced, has appealed to the railroad administration to grant a rate of one cent a mile for all delegates to the St. Louis convention.

Men Who Fought Under Canadian Flag Go Through Ogden

Forty members of a contingent of 2700 American soldiers who enlisted under the Canadian flag because they were denied enlistment in the United States army, passed through Ogden yesterday en route to their homes.

The entire contingent crossed the Atlantic with Rear Admiral Sims and were held in quarantine in Brooklyn because of a mistake of the British military authorities who failed to send manifests that the men were former American citizens. The men were finally taken care of and transportation granted by the American Red Cross.

The men that passed through Ogden represented nearly forty different divisions. One of the peculiar division markings worn by the soldiers was a blue horsehoe surrounded by a red bar, and worn exactly between the shoulder blades instead of on the shoulder.

The large contingent of men who originally started on the journey of the train across the continent left the train at various points nearest to their homes. All the men in their eagerness to join in the fight lost their rights to citizenship in the United States, but some of the men said they had been given reason to expect that it would be restored to them. Many of the men were decorations. They had been in the fight for two years.

Arrangements had been made at the canteen for entertaining the men while in Ogden and they were all given a good meal.

'T WAS A LUCKY DAY SAYS MRS. O'CONNOR

Her Improvement, After Taking Tanlac, Was Simply Wonderful.

"It was certainly a lucky day for me when I got my first bottle of Tanlac," said Mrs. John O'Connor, of 338 East Oldham street, Knoxville, Tenn.

"For five or six years," she continued, "I had been in a dreadfully run-down and nervous condition, was awfully weak and suffered with spells of dizziness. I had terrible nervous headaches and my stomach was so weak I couldn't digest even the lightest kind of food. I could sleep very little and became so despondent that I was afraid nothing could help me regain my health."

"I wouldn't have believed it if anybody had told me any medicine would cause me to gain eight pounds in ten days, but that is exactly what Tanlac has done for me. Soon after I started taking it I began to eat better, sleep like a baby and feel just fine and my steady improvement has simply been wonderful. I have thrown away all my other medicines and will stick to Tanlac, for I think it is the finest medicine on earth."

Tanlac is sold in Ogden by A. R. McIntyre Drug Co. Two busy stores.

GAMES PLAYED AS EXHIBITIONS

WASHINGTON, April 14—Wages increases averaging about $15 a month for approximately 60,000 employees of the American railway express company were announced tonight by Director General Hines. The increase represents an advance of $25 a month above the wage scale in effect January 1, 1918. The net addition of this order will be the remainder, or about $12.50 per month.

Wages of 10,000 dining car employees were advanced $25 above the basic monthly minima in effect January 1, 1918. This will yield approximately $8 a month additional to each employee, since two thirds of this $25 increase was taken up in the general wage advance last year.

These minor wage orders for railroad employees who were included in the estimate of $67,000,000 in increases announced in connection with the wage order affecting the four trainmen's and engineers' brotherhoods several days ago, complete finally the "war cycle" of wage advances. Future applications for higher pay will be considered in the light of peace time conditions but will be dealt with by the same agency which threshed out the past wage questions.

The wage orders are to become effective at once.

The express employees applied more than six months ago for more pay and in some localities threatened a strike. Later they presented their case to the war labor board but withdrew it when assurances were given by the director general that the railroad administration's board of railway wages and working conditions would take up their case. About that time the American railway express company was taken over for operation by the railroad administration.
